Foundations Pediatric Therapy ("Foundations," "we," "our," or "us") respects your privacy and is committed to protecting the personal information you provide through our website.

Information We Collect

We may collect information that you voluntarily provide through our website, including:

- Parent or caregiver name
- Child's name and age (if provided)
- Email address
- Phone number
- Information submitted through contact or inquiry forms
- Any other information you choose to provide

We may also automatically collect certain technical information, such as:

- IP address
- Browser type
- Device information
- Pages visited on our website
- Date and time of website visits

How We Use Information

We may use information collected through our website to:

- Respond to inquiries
- Provide information about our services
- Schedule consultations or evaluations
- Improve our website and services
- Communicate with prospective and current clients
- Comply with legal obligations

Website Forms

Our website includes secure contact forms that are designed to support HIPAA-compliant transmission of information. Information submitted through these forms is encrypted and transmitted using secure technology.

We use reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards to protect information submitted through our website and work with service providers that support HIPAA compliance when handling protected health information.

Information submitted through our contact forms may be used to respond to inquiries, discuss services, determine service availability, and assist with scheduling evaluations or consultations.

HIPAA and Protected Health Information

Foundations Pediatric Therapy is committed to protecting the privacy and security of protected health information (PHI) in accordance with applicable federal and state laws, including the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA).

Information submitted through our secure website forms is handled in accordance with our privacy and security practices. Once an individual becomes a client of Foundations Pediatric Therapy, protected health information is managed in accordance with our Notice of Privacy Practices and applicable healthcare privacy laws.

If you have questions regarding the privacy or security of information submitted through our website, please contact us directly.

Cookies and Analytics

Our website may use cookies and analytics tools to improve website performance and understand visitor interactions. These tools may collect information about website usage but are not used to identify individual visitors.

Third-Party Services

Our website may contain links to third-party websites or use third-party services such as website hosting, analytics, scheduling tools, social media platforms, or email marketing providers. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of third-party websites.

Data Security

We use reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards to protect information submitted through our website. However, no method of electronic transmission or storage can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

Your Rights

You may contact us to request access to, correction of, or deletion of information submitted through our website, subject to applicable legal requirements.

Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Updates will be posted on this page with a revised effective date.
